On this, the 460th newsletter sent out to our thousands of regular readers, I'm going to do something I have never done before. I am going to ask our readers to do me a favor.

We have always provided our real estate newsletters for free, and plan to continue to do so forever. But there is still a way for you, dear reader, to compensate us for our efforts. This "compensation" requires no money and only takes about two minutes to do, so please, I implore you, gives us a hand promoting our newsletter.

All you have to do is CLICK THIS LINK, and it will open up a review page where you can click 5 stars (very important) and then just share a word or two about why you like having the Tallahassee Real Estate Weekly Special delivered to your email inbox every Monday morning. ANY length of review, from just a few words to a book report, coupled with the 5-star selection, will be very helpful in our quest to broaden the readership of the newsletter. Please let me thank you in advance, it will help us greatly.

This Week's Housing Update

I have produced a short video where I have shared my charts, graphs, and analysis of the current state of the Tallahassee housing market, you can watch it by clicking the video link below. Leave a comment letting me know what you think after watching the video.
